Southeastern Markets Regional Summary

Danny Pino ♦ Macon, GA ♦ 478.752.3560 ♦ Danny.Pino@usda.gov

Spot cotton trading was slow. Supplies and offerings were moderate. Demand was moderate. Average local spot prices were lower. Trading of CCC-loan equities was inactive.

A mix of clouds and sun dominated the weather pattern over the lower Southeast during the period. Daytime temperatures in the 40s and 50s warmed into the 70s as the week progressed. Nighttime lows were mostly in the 40s. Light scattered precipitation was received along the Gulf of America and Atlantic coastal areas. Precipitation totals measured from trace amounts to around one-half of an inch. The moisture improved abnormally dry conditions in the Florida Panhandle and portions of south Georgia, but dryness expanded in portions of west Alabama that missed precipitation, according the U.S. Drought Monitor. A very few gins remained on gin days in Alabama and Georgia as modules continued to arrive from the last harvested fields.

Mostly sunny skies were observed during much of the period across the upper Southeast during the period. Daytime high temperatures in the 40s and 50s warmed into the 60s and 70s as the week progressed. Nighttime lows were mostly in the 30s and 40s. Mostly dry conditions prevailed with periods of light rain recorded in eastern North Carolina late in the week. Producers welcomed the much needed moisture which helped to ease abnormally dry to moderate drought conditions. Producers considered planting options for the 2025-crop season.

Textile Mill

Domestic mill buyers inquired for color 31, leaf 3, staple 36 for June through December 2025 delivery. No sales were reported. The undertone from mill buyers remained cautious as they balanced yarn production schedules with finished product orders.

Demand through export channels was moderate. Agents for mills in Vietnam inquired for a moderate volume of color 31, leaf 3, and staple 36 and 37 for May through October shipment. No sales were reported.

Trading

- A moderate volume of color 52 and better, leaf 2-4, staple 35 and longer, mike 43-52, strength 29-32, and uniformity 82-85 sold for around 66.00 cents per pound, FOB car/truck, Georgia terms (Rule 5, compression charges paid, 30 days free storage).

South Central Markets Regional Summary

North Delta

Spot cotton trading was slow. Supplies of available cotton were light. Demand was very light. Trading of CCC-loan equities was inactive. Average local spot prices were lower. No forward contracting was reported.

Partly sunny skies persisted throughout the period. Warmer seasonable weather moved through the Mid-South. Daytime high temperatures were in the 30s to 60s. Overnight low temperatures were in the 20s to 40s. A few areas received accumulations of light precipitation with totals from trace amounts to around less than one-quarter of an inch of rain. The National Weather Service issued flood warnings throughout the region. According to the U.S. Drought Monitor, released on February 27, some improvement to drought conditions were observed in Arkansas. The last modules were arriving on gin yards in Arkansas as pressing operations neared completion. Local merchants attended the Mid-South Farm and Gin Show on February 28- March 1 at the Renasant Convention Center in Memphis, TN.

South Delta

Trading of spot cotton and CCC-loan equities was inactive. Supplies of available cotton was light. Demand was very light. Average local spot prices were lower. No forward contracting was reported.

Partially cloudy skies prevailed throughout the reporting period. Daytime high temperatures were in the 30s to 70s. Overnight low temperatures were in the 20s to 50s. The National Weather Service issued flood warning advisories. Precipitation totals measured from trace amounts to around one inch of rainfall. According to the U.S. Drought Monitor report released on February 27, most of the areas in Mississippi were dry. In Louisiana, soil moisture conditions improved in areas that received rainfall. Virtual and in-person industry meetings were being planned and attended. Industry representatives and producers attended the Mid-South Farm and Gin Show on February 28 through March 1 at the Renasant Convention Center in Memphis, TN.

Trading

North Delta

- A moderate volume lot containing mostly color 41, leaf 2-4, staple 36 and 37, mike averaging 4.2, strength averaging 28.6, and uniformity averaging 81.5 sold for around 68.25 cents per pound, FOB car/truck (Rule 5, compression charges paid).

East Texas-South Texas

Spot cotton trading was slow. Supplies and producer offerings were light. Demand was light. Average local spot prices were lower. Producer interest in forward contracting was light. Trading of CCC-loan equities was inactive. Foreign mill inquiries were moderate. Interest was best from Pakistan, Turkey, and Vietnam.

In East Texas, warmer temperatures and dry, mild weather conditions were observed this week. Daytime high temperatures climbed into the mid-60s and upper 70s. Nighttime temperatures were slightly cooler in the upper 30s to the upper 50s. Only trace amounts of rainfall were reported in the Blackland Prairies. Fieldwork and preparations for the planting season were ongoing. In South Texas, light showers brought moisture to much of the South Texas region early in the reporting period, but sunny and dry conditions returned to the region. Daytime high temperatures ranged from the 60s to the low 80s, and nighttime low temperatures dropped into the low 40s and 50s. Fieldwork and pre-plant activities continued uninterrupted under favorable weather conditions. Additional rainfall would be beneficial as planting time nears.

West Texas-Kansas-Oklahoma

Spot cotton trading was active. Supplies were heavy. Producer offerings were light. Demand was moderate. Average local spot prices were lower. Producer interest in forward contracting was light. Trading of CCC-loan equities was slow. Foreign mill inquiries were moderate. Interest was best from Pakistan, Turkey, and Vietnam.

In Texas, unseasonably warm temperatures prevailed until a cold front that moved through the region and brought gusty winds up to 40 miles per hour, which caused severe blowing dirt. Daytime highs were mostly in the low 40s to low 80s. Overnight low temperatures were in the 20s to 50s. No precipitation was received, and no chance of rain is in the forecast. Fieldwork was temporarily stalled by gusty conditions on February 26, but quickly restarted the next day. Producers that have fields with good moisture are ripping the soil to open it up to receive any precipitation that might come to the area. Samples were submitted for grading services as the season is rapidly drawing to an end. Texas A&M Agrilife Extension held the annual Sandyland Agricultural Conference in Gaines County.

In Kansas, sunny conditions returned following the last winter storm with daytime temperatures in the upper 20s to mid-70s, and overnight lows in the single digits to 40s. Some applications of lime and fertilizer were applied, but generally fields have been prepped for winter. Soils are moist from the melting of last week's snowstorm. In Oklahoma, daytime high temperatures were in the mid-30s to upper 70s. Overnight temperatures were in the teens to 40s. The Arctic blast moved out of the area early in the report period and unseasonably warm and sunny weather conditions prevailed. The region needs more rainfall ahead of spring planting. Ginning was completed for the season.
